Happy Thanksgiving

The Savior of the World

Jesus is the savior of the world. He gave up his life for mankind. He took the issue of sin out of the way so that man would no longer see himself unworthy to assume his God given position as a son of God. Jesus was full of mercy and compassion. He bore men's burdens and forgave even those that offended and crucified him saying, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." Jesus was the Word made flesh that revealed the heart of the Father to the people on earth. It was the revelation of God's love and compassion for mankind that set people free from their sins and brought salvation (freedom from bondage, liberty to them.

John 1:14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. Jesus exchanged his life for ours. He took our sin upon himself and gave us his position as the son of God. John 1:12-13, 16. He commissioned us to assume his position as the savior of the world.

John 20:21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

John 20:22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

John 20:23 Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

We are His ministers of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5:17-19. Not only are we ministers of the reconciliation that came through the blood of Jesus, but we are ministers of the reconciliation of God toward mankind as we directly forgive those people that offend us. We have both the power to hold people captive to, and to release them from the bondage of their sins. Luke 11:4 Jesus tells us to lay down our lives for others and to bear one another's burdens just as he bore ours. John 15:12-17, Gal 6:2

John 15:9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

We have been given the task of releasing people from the bondage of their sins. As we get a revelation of God's love for us and allow that same love by the power of the Spirit to be manifested through our lives, people in our day will get a revelation of God's love and mercy towards them that will set them free!

Jesus was the Word made flesh and we are flesh filled with the Word that reveals the heart of the Father to the people on earth. Continue in My love!

From our Family to yours we want to wish you a ..
